Making a world of difference

Administrative Search Announcement

Founding Head of School
Academy for Scholar-Athletes
India

Background

International Schools Services has been retained by a family consortium in India to assist in the development of up to five sports academies for 6th-12th grade students. The initial 70+ acre, purpose-built campus is scheduled to open in August 2019. The founding head of school is expected to be onsite full time beginning in August 2018.

In addition to support from ISS, the consortium has contracted with internationally recognized world-class training/coaching organizations in 8 sports: basketball, soccer, swimming, tennis, golf, cricket, squash and badminton.

The School

Academy graduates will earn a U.S. accredited high school diploma, fulfill NCAA eligibility requirements and achieved a level of proficiency in at least one sport to be competitive at NCAA schools and/or their equivalent in other countries.

The Position

Candidates for this exciting opportunity should have a record of successful senior leadership experience in international settings, a background in competitive sports and a passion for challenge and creativity.
