ISS Finance

Streamline Accounting and Finance Functions

As you balance local and expatriate staff and vendors, ISS Accounting and Finance can give your back office added support in coordinating your school's accounting and international financial operations.

Accounting and Global Business Solutions

Our professionals can streamline your school's business office's accounting services, plus enhance your overall financial management by:

- Conducting your entire payroll processing function
- Globally executing your vendor payments
- Conducting routine audit and monitoring functions
- Managing tuition, grant services, retirement plans, health plans, and more

Foundation Management

When ISS manages your foundation, we relieve your school and staff of virtually all administrative functions and pressures by:

- Completing strategic plans for establishing a 501(c)(3) organization
- Preparing and processing all paperwork required
- Reporting to you and your board on the status of the foundation and its finances
- Liaising with state and IRS officials for legal set-up, and more

Support Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Justice

ISS is committed to our collective journey for organizational and school transformation grounded on antiracism, diversity, equity, inclusion, justice, belonging, and child protection.

Purpose, People, and our Continuous Commitment

During the past years, leaders and members of our community have collaborated with individuals, schools, and organizations as we pursue, define, and lead antiracism work through active reflection and learning, and intentional action-taking. We will continue to hold ourselves accountable and model the change we aspire to effect.

Reflection and Learning

ISS will continue to lead and facilitate the reflection and learning of our community through a range of professional learning and partnerships within our organization and with our partners across the world.

We will be bold and courageous in understanding interrelated narratives and systems that create problems using data as tools for learning and transformation.

Join us in Transformative Learning to Action

School culture and systems transformation requires not only learning but also long term, sustainable, and intentional co-creation of actions. ISS recognizes the importance of grounding our work on people and harnessing our collective capacity as change-makers, and leveraging the power, positionalities, privileges, and potentials of our communities.

In this spirit, we're proud to offer the Learning to Action Institute

Come join a cohort of international educators building our collective leadership capacity to nurture caring, critical, & courageous change-making in our communities. Two tracks available, Foundational and Advanced!

Connect with Global Communities

ISS facilitates partnerships and collaborations with regional and international organizations through professional development, research, task forces, and other convenings. Check out even more initiatives with ISS to connect, grow, and make a world of difference together:

-The ISS Mary Anne Haas- WOMEN'S SYMPOSIUM

ISS Mary Anne Haas Women's Symposium

For over 20 years, ISS has supported women in international school leadership. Through both in-person and virtual gatherings, current and aspiring leaders network and further their learning.

DIVERSITY COLLABORATIVE

Diversity Collaborative

With a focus on creating a more diverse, equitable, inclusive, and just environment in international education leadership, the Diversity Collaborative connects educational professionals to effect lasting change.

Child Protection

As one of the founding members of the International Task Force for Child Protection, ISS works to prevent abuse in international schools and encourages all to take an active role in child protection.
